

Tom Cruise
Mission
Aborted

MOTHER'S DAY MANIFESTO

SPANK
ROCK
CONVERSION

Pacino's
Dance of the Seven Veils

MICK FARREN
ON THE FDA'S
JUNKED SCIENCE

TED BALL'S
LEFT COAST

MAY 11-17, 2006 * VOL. 4, NO. 20

LOS ANGELES CITY BEAT

ISSUE FREE

Summer
2006
Guide

Catalina
Underwater

Midnight
Biking

The Sunken
City

Andy Klein's
Worst
Summer Ever

The Discount
Beach

Theater
Alfresco

Natalie Nichols's
20 Summers
in L.A.

Narco-Tourism

Summer Lit

Rock Fests
& Club Dives

GOING UNDER IN CATALINA: KEN BABENCO

Saturday 13

CRAFT SOME CREATIVITY

The great thing about crafts is you can do them anywhere – poolside, at barbecues, summer evenings on your front stoop. See what compatriot craftfolk have been up to all winter by attending “Felt Club,” a monthly mini craft fair at Melt Down Comics (7522 W. Sunset Blvd., L.A., 323-851-7223, 11 a.m.-6 p.m.; free). Featuring some of the weirdest and wonderful-est works from the SoCal craft scene, this show of rotating artists promises totebags, jewelry, plushies, and any odd and adorable thing you can't imagine. If you're looking for instruction, however, consider UCLA Extension's third annual “Free ArtsDay L.A.” It features book sales and signings, drawing lessons, discounts on summer classes, and talks by the adult learning program's respected faculty, among them architect Eric Lloyd Wright, author Carolyn See, and designer Deborah Sussman. 11 a.m.-3 p.m. Free. UCLA Court of Sciences, Westwood. Info: (310) 267-4888 or Uclaextension.edu/artsdayla.